"IVONA, PRINCESS OF BURGUNDY" HAS ENCHANTED THE LARGE SCENE

On the third day of the 15th International Gombrowicz Festival the Ludowy Theater in Kraków presented the play "Ivona, Princess of Burgundy" directed by Cezary Tomaszewski.

Great acting, live music, a surprising beginning and end are the great strength of this show!

After the performance Rafał Turowski talked with Beata Schimscheiner, Cezary Tomaszewski and Paweł Kumiążyca at the Festival Studio . We encourage you to watch the interview.

Tonight we are waiting for the performance of the Ludwik Solski Theatre in Tarnów "Trans - Atlantico".

We cannot wait!
